Jamey Latchum Elected to Maryland Rural Water Association Board of Directors

(May 11, 2016) --- The Town of Berlin is pleased to announce Wastewater Superintendent Jamey Latchum has been elected to the Maryland Rural Water Association Board of Directors.

“Mr. Latchum has been with the Town of Berlin for over fifteen years and has been instrumental in the success of the Wastewater Department,” stated Mayor Gee Williams. “This is the type of dedication and top-notch knowledge that makes Berlin stand out,” he added.

The Maryland Rural Water Association (MRWA) is governed by a membership of elected Board of Directors and has a proven track record of providing the highest quality training, technical assistance and services necessary for promoting public health and environmental protection.
